

Subsidies for People Living in Subdivided Units

Power Connect, an energy saving initiative to help people in need, encourages energy saving and caring for the community. The programme offers financial assistance to 10,000 households living in subdivided units to alleviate their electricity expenses.

Who is Eligible?

To apply, applicants must meet all the following criteria:

- Living in a subdivided unit in poor conditions
- The subdivided unit is located in a building with CLP electricity supply
- No individual CLP electricity account is created for the subdivided unit
- A Hong Kong ID card holder for not less than one year; and have resided in Hong Kong for at least one year since acquiring the Hong Kong resident status

What is the Subsidy?

Successful applicants will each receive a one-off electricity subsidy of HK$500 to alleviate their electricity expenses.

Points to Note

- Applications must be submitted through a designated CLP community partner. Applicants should bring along Hong Kong ID card and bank passbook for application
- Applicants may be requested to present supporting documents such as rent receipts and government correspondence for reference
- Applicants can apply only once each year
